Report of Board of Selectmen

SELECTMEN AND BOARD OF PUBLIC WELFARE — LeRoy A. Nutting, Romeo N. Monat, Chairman, Everett J. O'Connor, standing.

The Board of Selectmen met to reorganize on March 7, 1967 with Romeo N. Monat, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen and Veterans Agent; LeRoy A. Nutting, Chairman of the Board of Health; Everett J. O'Connor, Clerk and Chairman of the Board of Welfare.

This year a number of new projects have been introduced and many old ones continued. Last Spring we saw the acceptance of the Federal Loan for preliminary planning of a water system for the Town of Granby. These plans are nearing completion and will soon be ready to submit to the Department of Housing and Urban Development for approval, after which Advance or Final Planning Grants may be applied for to finalize a portion of the plan. Kellogg Hall received a much needed painting last summer, a new sign has been erected, and many repairs made to make our building more inviting and functional. The new police station is well underway and occupancy is expected some time in the late spring.

A Parks and Recreation Study Commission was organized this year to determine the need for a permanent Parks and Recreation Commission. Their report will outline for you the progress made in this department.

Once again we wish to thank all the Elected and Appointed Officials for their untiring cooperation in the many and varied problems that have arisen throughout the year. Also our sincere thanks to the townspeople for their cooperation and understanding as we endeavored to perform the various duties of our office.

Respectfully submitted,
ROMEO N. MONAT, Chairman
LeROY A. NUTTING

Assessor's Report

ASSESSORS — Bradford S. Yarber, John H. Scott, Chairman, Harold B. Taylor, standing.

Your Assessors, over the years, have given in their annual report various figures and statistics which, perhaps, have not meant too much to the average taxpayer but are, in themselves, important.

During the past few years, the Town has grown, new properties, increased valuation, new schools, increased fire and police protection and many other modern requirements have meant increased town expenditures. These additional expenses, of course, have to be met by the taxpayer. It is true that sales tax money and many other exemptions have been granted in various departments and these have helped to a large degree but you, the taxpayer, still have to pay the balance and it is the work of your Board of Assessors to study values in their true light and assess taxes as fairly as they can. Yet, we must admit that it is work that is quite often not too pleasant but we do what we feel is fair, taking all facts into consideration.

One of our aims in the past few years has been to try to equalize values on a solid basis and we have always tried to check properties in dispute with the owner in a fair and polite manner. This, we plan to continue in the future.

Revaluation of properties is a major topic today and can be a very controversial subject but, throughout the Commonwealth at meetings and at the State Assessors' School held each summer at the University of Massachusetts, local assessors are being kept up to date on the latest and more uniform methods.

The contract for town maps is proceeding very well and we hope to have it completed and available for inspection by anyone in the early Spring. These maps are going to be a great help in many ways.

Voters must remember that the tax rate is controlled largely by appropriations voted by them at the Annual Town Meeting and your Finance Board, as well as your Assessors, has to allocate values, etc. to the best of their ability but you, as voters, have the say as to the total expense which so vitally effects the tax rate.

Your Board of Assessors sincerely appreciates the patience and understanding of the Townspeople as we have endeavored to arrive at an honest and satisfactory decision to the many problems presented to us during the year.

Sincerely,

JOHN H. SCOTT, Chairman
BRADFORD S. YARBER
HAROLD B. TAYLOR

Report of Planning Board

PLANNING BOARD — Patric P. O'Sullivan, Richard Lofland, James B. Buckley, Jr., Albert H. Bail.

TO: THE CITIZENS OF GRANBY

The Granby Planning Board met twice a month during the past year. These regular meetings are held in Kellogg Hall on the second and fourth Mondays of the month at 8:00 P.M. Several special meetings were also held.

Aside from routine business, the total efforts of the Board were spent with the problem of zoning. After spending a great deal of time and effort, the Board brought a proposed comprehensive Zoning By-law before the town in Town Meeting in August. Just under three hundred, of the approximately two-thousand voters, exercised their right to vote. Although a majority voted in favor of the By-law, the two-thirds vote necessary to carry the action was lacking.

Since August the Board has been making some modifications and a revised edition will be presented by the Board during the first two months of 1968.

So in all probability before this town report is published, the Town of Granby, through its town meeting, will have expressed its desire concerning zoning.

The Board wishes to express its thanks to the many townspeople and town officials who have given it so much cooperation in the past year.

Very truly yours,

JAMES B. BUCKLEY, Jr., Chairman
P. PEARSE O'SULLIVAN, Clerk

Tuberculosis:

No new cases were reported, however, a previous case was readmitted. Forty people were notified when due for chest plates. Mantoux testing was done in the schools.

Clinics:

Three DPT Clinics were held and a total of 233 were inoculated. Seventeen pre-schoolers received polio vaccine. A measles clinic was held where 46 children were immunized. Two flu clinics were held and 82 town employees received vaccine.

Conferences:

I attended four conferences on tuberculosis, two on heart disease and one sponsored by the Safety Council.

Granby has taken advantage of a new program sponsored by the Massachusetts Health Department financed under a Federal Grant. Under this program visits are made to newborn and two year old children in Granby. Parents are urged to have their children immunized as soon as possible. They are also made aware of the Town Clinics. By visiting these parents, many new problems are learned and help given when possible.

Aside from the practical nursing, arrangements are made for patients for doctor's orders and appointments, laboratory tests, X-Rays, physical therapy, special foot care, home health aides and special clinics. I wish to thank the members of the "FISH" organization and "P.M. Club" for their help with baby sitting and household duties given when a family is in need.

The dog situation in Granby could be greatly improved especially in thickly settled areas, if dog owners would keep their dogs on their own property and not let them roam. Female dogs should be confined and off the ground when in season.

On several occasions dogs on the playgrounds and at the bus stops have been very troublesome to the children; cooperation from dog owners on this matter is especially requested.

The 1967 Leash Law was in effect during the summer and was a noticeable success thanks to the cooperation of the townspeople. It is, of course, to be remembered that dogs unused to being confined will do considerably more barking than usual. This is more noticeable in residential areas.

This has been a busy year for the department.

February 1st I assumed the duties of Chief and established a police office in the Town Hall. This office has greatly improved police efficiency. Presently the department is run week-days directly from the new headquarters.

Currently under construction is a building which will give the department larger office space, a lock-up and vehicle garage space. This building will more adequately provide for our present needs and will allow for future expansion.

For the first time a formal program of training was carried on through the Massachusetts Department of Education. Twelve officers graduated from the first course, "Interpretation of Massachusetts Criminal Law" and eleven officers from the second, "Practical Police Problems and Motor Vehicle Laws." Each course was conducted evenings for ten weeks and our part-time officers willingly donated their time. New courses have been planned and will be given in 1968.

Police problems, as in most communities, are on the increase. Granby's one exception is traffic accidents which have decreased 45% compared to 1966. This has been due in part to an almost 100% increase in traffic citations issued.

Our two cruisers have logged nearly a hundred thousand miles this past year.

I would especially like to thank my officers, the Auxiliary Police, retired Chief William Gallup and South Hadley Chief Henry Decker and his officers for their cooperation and support.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. KIRCHHOF
Chief of Police

Report of Tree Warden

During the year 1967 there were 56 large and 27 medium trees removed from the town highways. The March 7th snow and ice storm did much damage to the tree limbs throughout the town highways. The first and second weeks of April were spent in cleaning away the downed limbs.

Once again this year brush spraying was done along the highways to prevent regrowth. This spraying was done by the Town Highway Department and has proven most satisfactory.

I wish to thank the Highway Department for the fine cooperation during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN E. ROSINSKI
Tree Warden

Report of Board of Health

The Board of Health submits the following report for the year 1967.

The following contagious diseases were reported during the year:

Chicken Pox	19
German Measles	2
Measles	2
Mumps	6
Scarlet Fever	1
Strep Infections	35
Salmonella Type D	1

Fifteen Animal bites were reported this year.

Twenty-five septic tank permits were issued throughout the year.

During the past year we appointed a Sanitary Control Site and Acquisition Committee to study the problem of the Town dumping facilities. In the interim, we have proceeded to maintain our present facilities in a more orderly and sanitary condition. With the cooperation of the townspeople this can be accomplished without too great an expense to the Town.

In the interest of the health of our citizens new rules and regulations have been put into force to insure the proper quality and quantity of water. A Plumbing Inspector was appointed to insure proper installation of plumbing facilities. Several clinics were held during the year for the immunization of our children. The Board of Health's first interest is in the health and welfare of the citizens of Granby.

The Auxiliary Police Division of Civil Defense underwent some changes due to the appointment of two of its members to the Regular Police Department. A training program is in effect to improve the capability of this department to function efficiently during an emergency and also to train the Auxiliary Police Officers in routine police work. The Auxiliary Police have been called upon several times to assist the Regular Police at local functions, at which times they responded well and did a good job.

During the year of 1967, the strong aspect of Civil Defense has been in the Communications. There is a central radio station for the Town of Granby in the Police Office of Kellogg Hall and on the first Tuesday of each month this station is manned by Chief Al Bessette and Henry Randall. The Civil Defense Director stands by as an observer and sends occasional messages. The Granby radio station is tied in with the central station at Civil Defense Headquarters, University of Massachusetts and in tune with the other radio station towns in Sector 4C. Instructions and information are passed over the radio with responses by the different towns.

Under Chief Al Bessette, Auxiliary Police, in cooperation with Civil Defense, have made real progress in training programs and in obtaining good new members to help carry on. Former Police Chief William Gallup gave a First Aid Red Cross course during the year and will repeat this for 1968 along with an advance course. Many members of Civil Defense and Auxiliary Police will attend this course.

We look forward to a year of continued progress in our local Auxiliary Police and Civil Defense Department and there will be important developments coming through on the state and national scene. Surely this is no time for us to feel secure. The world situation is more explosive than ever and it is just a question of whether somebody might light the fuse. We have good people in the Town Department of Granby and, in case of disaster or emergency, they will, with your cooperation, do their best to protect people and property.

Report of The Fire Chief

CHIEF — Lindolph O. Parker.

The department has continued with a program of formal training. Four members attended a two day seminar held at Westover Field instructed by qualified personnel from several sections of the Commonwealth. All phases of the duties of fire fighters and officers were taken up and demonstrated. Certificates are held by those attending. Increasing interest in forest fire activity has been shown by the Granby members, four of whom have secured certificates in this field.

Every month on the first Friday a regular meeting has been held, part of which has been practice. There were extra evening drills during the summer months.

During 1967 several new and very active members have been added to the department. This is a real help to the service.

It would be of great benefit to all concerned if the street number of every household was displayed so that it could be noticed from each direction on the street. Many times this lack of identity has caused delay in arrival of equipment and the ambulance in cases of emergency.

The following number of calls have been answered during the year:

Automobile	8
Buildings	16
Grass & Brush	23
Oxygen	4
Miscellaneous	12
Ambulance	92
	145

Permits have been issued as follows:

Oil Burner Installations	30
Oil Storage	43
Blasting	4
Gun Powder	1

Inspections have been made of all public buildings as required by the Department of Public Safety. The care and servicing of extinguishers in the school buildings has been taken over by the Chief. This will be an improvement over previous service with no expense to the town except materials used in recharging.

Losses of personal and real property were estimated as $30,575 of which $22,611.90 was reimbursed by insurance.

The former police cruiser turned over to this department by the town has been painted, lettered, and with a good check and tune-up is in good serviceable condition at a very low cost. This car is being used to take ambulant patients for emergency examination or treatment at hospitals or doctor's offices as well as for routine department activity.

The ambulance service has been improved with the purchase of a new recusitator capable of taking care of two patients at once. A new folding stretcher-chair combination has been added which makes for more patient comfort when being taken over stairs or through crooked narrow places. The replacement of the older vehicle with a 1961 Cadillac Superior Coach in excellent condition is a real boom. Now three stretcher patients can be transported at once.

The Fire Station meeting room is suitable for gatherings of thirty or less people and several organizations have been using it.

For the cooperation of officers of the town and the townspeople in general we say Thank You. I express my appreciation to the firemen for a very successful year.

Belchertown-Granby Welfare District Report

Belchertown Board of Public Welfare
Granby Board of Public Welfare
Gentlemen:

The Belchertown-Granby Welfare District reports herewith on the activities for 1967, the fifteenth year in which it has administered the various welfare programs for Belchertown and Granby.

The Medical Assistance and Aid to Families with Dependent Children programs have continued to increase and it became necessary to increase our staff in order to comply with Federal requirements and to provide the necessary services. Miss Nancy-Lee Murphy of South Hadley, a graduate of University of Massachusetts (1967) with a major in Psychology and a minor in Sociology, was employed in June and her services are proving resourceful in working with our clients.

A request for additional funds from both Towns was necessary during the year to subsidize the increased expense with the result that the request for funds this year is limited to $102.19 for Granby, the Town of Belchertown having enough cash in the District to cover its apportionment for 1968. The District continues to apportion expenses and reimbursements at 62.5% for Belchertown and 37.5% for Granby.

In accordance with Chapter 658 of the Acts of 1967, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts will assume the financial and administrative responsibility for all welfare programs as of July 1, 1968. Therefore, the administrative budget has been considered accordingly. Plans are indefinite at this time as to how this transition will be accomplished.

During the year 229 cases were handled, 528 visits and contacts made, and assistance payments of $110,918.62 were approved. The total operating expenses for the District were $22,945.48 with reimbursements of $19,919.95, leaving a net expense of $3,025.53.

At the close of the year the Town of Granby held one Old Age Assistance lien.

Emphasis continues to be placed on social rehabilitation, especially in Aid to Families with Dependent Children cases.

As mentioned in the Belchertown-Granby Welfare District report, our staff now includes Miss Nancy-Lee Murphy as Social Worker and her services are proving to be very helpful and resourceful.

Also, Chapter 658 of the Acts of 1967 provides for State administration and financial responsibility for all welfare programs as of July 1, 1968. At the present time plans appear to be indefinite as to how this transition will be accomplished. However, appropriation request have been considered accordingly.

Report of Highway Department

The Highway Department again had a successful year.

Although it experienced a short working season with a late and wet spring plus an early winter, it did accomplish a great deal of road work.

In early spring, Porter Street was graveled for a distance of 1800 feet and later was oil surfaced for 1200 feet. Construction should continue on this road in 1968.

Chicopee Street was cleared of brush and trees. From last year's work to Route 202, a sub grade was roughed out and two thirds of the needed gravel was hauled in. It is hoped to complete this road in 1968.

A drain was installed on West Street but some work remains to be done in 1968.

In late spring, the department was called upon to repair the Pec Wee and West Street School baseball diamonds. Five hundred linear feet of Norman Avenue was repaired and the town parking area and driveway was enlarged. A great many stolen street signs had to be replaced. All of this work was done with the Town Roads Account.

Under Chapter 81, the following roads were resurfaced: one half of Truby Street, one half of Morgan Street, Batchelor Street from Porter to Amherst Street, Taylor Street, North Street Lyn Drive, Woodside Terrace, Lakeview Avenue, Dian Street, Jackielyn Circle, Graystone Avenue, Oak Drive, Ferry Hill Road, Pine Brook Circle, Lane Brook Circle.

Several drainage jobs were completed throughout the town. A new cut off at Morgan, East and Pleasant Street was made. Nearly all roadsides were mowed. Several hundred tons of bituminous patch were used to patch pot holes and shoulders. Stolen signs in this area were replaced.

Under Chapter 90 Maintenance, School, Chicopee and Lyons Streets were resurfaced. At the junction of Kendal and Chicopee Streets, the east banking was pushed back for better vision and the junction was widened. New signs were replaced in this area also, as many had been stolen.

Chapter 90 Construction was continued on School Street and was completed to the home of Mr. Paul L'Abbee. All concrete work was done by the Department. A great deal of thanks and appreciation should be given to Mr. Frank Falk for allowing the Department to roam about his property at will for easier and more convenient means of working and, above all, for allowing us to open and close his water gates at our own discretion. Had Mr. Falk not been so cooperative, a vast amount of added expense would have resulted at the bridge location.

Late in the season, Amherst Street work got under way. All drain pipe was installed and a section of the street was rebuilt and a base coat of asphalt applied. Also, a section of the new entrance has been brought to grade. We expect to start construction on Amherst Street in the late spring or early summer thus completing Amherst Street. Reconstruction of a portion of Batchelor Street should be started in the late summer or early fall.

With Bridges and Railings funds, new metal railings were installed on the North Street bridge. The former railings were destroyed by pranksters. Other railings throughout the town that had been hit by automobiles were also repaired.

Late in the year, the Department cleaned up the Town Dump and has been assigned to continue this work in the future. All residents of Granby using the dump should obey the officer at the dump and make every effort to throw all rubbish over the embankment in order to keep the disposal area neat and tidy, preventing a recurrence of a dirty and filthy dump as has been the case in the past.

Respectfully submitted,
MICHAEL SZABAN
Superintendent of Highways

Report of The Conservation Commission

In 1967 the main project of your Conservation Commission was the property along Batchelor Brook (about 70 acres with flooding rights) which Wilbur Easton will donate to Granby for recreational purposes provided the Town agrees to erect a dam to create a pond. Mr. Easton has extended the option on the property for this purpose from two to five years.

Your Conservation Commission has investigated the area thoroughly, conferred with engineers and had legal advice from Town Counsel. Cost of the dam is approximately $20,000.

In addition, there is a plot of land, forty or fifty acres, adjoining the aforementioned property north of Batchelor Brook on which Wilbur Easton has offered the Town a ten year option to purchase for $7,000. The Town of Granby has no property for recreational purposes and acquisition of 110 or 120 acres on Batchelor Brook will provide much needed swimming, skating and picnicking facilities. It will also preserve for future generations a very lovely and important feature of the Granby terrain.

A special Town Meeting will be held in April 1968 to see if the Townspeople will accept the first parcel of land and agree to build the dam within the five-year period. Also, to see if the Town will agree to purchase the second parcel of land within the ten year period at a total cost of $7,000.

The Conservation Commission is also planning projects in conjunction with the Granby Bicentennial Celebration and looking into ways it may cooperate in a beautification program.

Report of Town Counsel

The town was involved either as a Plaintiff or Defendant in six cases in 1967 in the Land Court, Probate Court, District Court and Superior Court. The town was a defendant in one additional case in the Federal District Court. Only one of these cases involved any potential liability for money damages by the town and this case has been settled and the matter closed with the proper agreements having been filed in court. All the other cases are pending decision or other action of the court. None of them are anticipated to require actual trial of factual matters.

The town successfully defended one appeal of an assessment of real estate before the Appellate Tax Board of the Commonwealth.

The increasing complexity of government at all levels necessarily includes the Town of Granby, so that there are many questions which arise day by day requiring new decisions by your Selectmen and all elective officers, members of boards, commissions and town employees. When any of these people have called on me for my help or opinion, I have found them most cooperative and helpful in pointing up the specific problem and in applying the law to their specific areas of interest.

The townspeople can anticipate that new problems of first import will continue to arise as the town grows and that these problems will be both challenging and interesting, but with the required effort that they will be solved.

Respectfully submitted,
ALPHONSE C. TURCOTTE
Town Counsel

Report of The Parks & Recreation Study Commission

After thorough study, this Commission has found fit to make the following recommendations:

Recommendation 1. That the Town establish a Parks and Recreation Commission. It has been ascertained that State Law requires that any Town with over 5,000 population is required to set up a Parks and Recreation Commission. Granby now is so close to this figure that such action will soon be mandatory.

Recommendation 2. That such a Commission start with the construction and maintenance of playground areas and eventually, once functioning, assume responsibility for all play areas under town jurisdiction.

Recommendation 3. The Commission should consist of three residents appointed by the Board of Selectmen for three year terms. The first Commission should consist of one member appointed for each; one year, two years and three years. The Commission should have the authority to hire a working supervisor and appropriate personnel.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Granby Bi-Centennial Executive Committee

The Granby Bi-Centennial Executive Committee wish to thank the people of Granby for the fine cooperation as they attempt to put together the 200th year observance of our Town. We realize that this is a big job, but if we all help in some small way to put Granby first, we can always be proud of our community in the future, and leave many momentos for those to follow us.

TO: The Citizens of the Town of Granby

Your Finance Committee is sincerely appreciative of all town departments for the cooperation realized during the development and preparation of the 1968 budget. Our particular thanks to Harold Ranger, Town Accountant for providing most exacting monthly appropriation statements during the year thus providing our committee with a regularly scheduled recapitulation of appropriation balances.

Pursuant to the provisions of the General Laws, Chapter 40, Section 6 which authorizes the town to appropriate a sum of money to be held in reserve for extra and/or unforeseen expenditures to be disbursed on written approval of the Finance Committee, we herewith present our accounting:

Holding the line on the tax rate is about as possible as yesterday becoming today! Town needs together with tough new laws imposed on the taxpayer by State Legislature has created nightmares. The worst common plea is that with school budgets and welfare costs out of the hands of the Finance Committee we control only tiny portions of their operating expenses. It is true, too, that with the states authorization of collective bargaining that even School Committees are losing their scope of control.

The Finance Committee is deeply concerned as to the future expense to the Town resulting from the enactment of collective bargaining, establishment of a kindergarten with mandatory attendance and possible state intervention in teacher-pupil ratio.

With the facts as they are the Finance Committee has highly recommended that this year's town budget be voted at town meeting in segregated form. There has been much discussion and planning in this area resulting in its acceptance by all departments. It was, therefore, requested of each department to submit their respective budgets in segregated form encompassing three specific categories, namely:

- A. Salaries and Wages
- B. Capital Outlays (Equipment, Etc.)
- C. Maintenance (Other Expense)

This action shall unquestionably provide tight control's on the expenditures of budget requests.

Please understand that a segregated budget is not accomplished by merely appropriating for a given department a sum which equals the Total of the items shown in the report of the Finance Committee, each item must be the subject matter of a separate vote by the Town. Thereafter each department is limited to the amount voted, per category, at the Town Meeting. Any request for additional funds must be approved at a special town meeting.

It is suggested that all departmental heads maintain close contact with the Town Accountant in an effort to be constantly updated with regards to their appropriated budget balances.

The Finance Committee highly recommends that the Town accept and request this segregated form of budgeting procedure at this town meeting and those in the future. It is the expenditure of your tax dollar that we endeavor to control.

Respectfully submitted,

FINANCE COMMITTEE

C. GERALD WEAVER

To the Citizens of Granby:

The School Committee has come to expect that each year will bring continuing growth and continuing change, but 1967 was, in many ways, a relatively quiet year. The rapid growth in numbers of children starting first grade appears to have leveled off, at least temporarily, though the school system continues to grow because more children are entering school than are graduating from school. One of the few major changes of the year came with the departure of the high school principal, William Freisem. The School Committee accepted Mr. Freisem's resignation with real regret, but we continued to be fortunate in finding excellent administrators and were able to replace Mr. Freisem with Louis Josselyn, an energetic and able young man who came to Granby from the principalship in Berlin, New Hampshire.

The School Committee spent a considerable part of its time during 1967 in beginning a detailed examination of the organization and operation of the Granby School System. The Committee has been working closely with the superintendent of schools and with various heads of departments in the high school in an analysis and evaluation of academic programs in the high school. We have also examined several general school policies, attempting to make them more efficient and more useful to the town.

The single most time-consuming task during the year has been our negotiations with the several organizations of school employees. We have completed mutually satisfactory collective bargaining with the Granby Cafeteria Workers Association and the Granby Custodians Association and we are proceeding steadily in our negotiations with the Granby Teachers Association. We are happy to be able to report that these negotiations have been conducted in an atmosphere characterized by friendliness, mutual respect and a common desire to serve the best interests of the school system as well as the best interests of the bargaining groups. We anticipate completing contract negotiations with the Granby Teachers Association early in 1968.

The School Committee proposes to introduce in September 1968 two long-needed additions to the operation of our school system: a public kindergarten and late buses from the high school to accommodate students participating in after-school activities. We feel that the kindergarten in particular will be an exceptionally valuable innovation.

All in all, 1967 was another good year for the Granby Schools. The system, in general, worked well; relations between the town and the school system continued to be excellent; and once again we received fine performances from the capable administrators and teachers who are the key to quality education in Granby.

Respectfully submitted,
FREDERICK PALMER,
Chairman

JAMES MACMONEGLE,
Secretary

Report of The Superintendent of Schools

To the School Committee and Citizens of Granby
Granby, Massachusetts

I respectfully submit my second annual report as Superintendent of Schools.

FOREWORD

As our community prepares for its Bicentennial Celebration in 1968, the Granby Schools continue to establish a "commendable educational record" as accounts of school activities in the widely diversified fields of athletics, dramatics, assemblies, and scholastic achievements are reported to the townspeople who are contributing to the support of our educational system.

Schools are a big business today. Over one-third of the population of this town spends the working day in our schools as pupils, teachers, custodians, cafeteria workers, secretaries or other staff members. That is why there is a financial magnitude to this problem of education and why school costs are so often discussed.

Good schools are very much alive — alive with people teaching, singing, playing, working and learning. We think of our school system as a team of highly trained, talented, and dedicated men and women deftly applying their professional skills to develop the minds and bodies of our young citizens. We think of schools as people, people planning and working in concert to make this most important period of a child's life as intellectually profitable, enjoyable, and memorable as possible.

My second annual report will consist of a discussion of certain areas of the present educational program and a brief projection of future trends.

CURRICULUM

Elementary Education

1. A comprehensive remedial and developmental reading program is fast becoming a reality in the elementary schools. We have been most fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Dorothy Drown as a reading specialist who has already made considerable progress in the development of the above program. This promises to be a very significant contribution to all areas of the curriculum.
2. A new approach to the teaching of written composition has been introduced in the intermediate grades by the teaching staff. While it is too early to make final judgment on the value of this program, early indications warrant continued experimentation.
3. A new report card is now being used at the elementary level. This card allows the teacher to define a pupil's progress not only in traditional terms but in accordance with his placement on a "progress continuum" related to his own ability.
4. Updating of the social studies program has resulted from the introduction of in-depth study units requiring independent project work in a most modern school library.
5. Steps were taken to determine the number of elementary pupils needing speech therapy. As a result of a survey conducted by the University of Massachusetts Speech and Hearing Center, it seems that the services of a part-time or preferably a full-time speech therapist should be considered in the immediate future.

Secondary Education

The teachers recognize the need to be contemporary and aware of the changes occurring in the subject matter fields. In the junior-senior high school, we are continually putting great effort into the presenting of good, strong programs for all students.

1. For example, the industrial arts program continues to provide excellent training for a good number of students. Likewise, the business department is providing a firm grounding in the stenographic and clerical practices, enabling graduates to enter good jobs immediately upon graduation.
2. Then, too, for the potential terminal students, we have introduced a work-study program which is enabling students to attain the academic requirements of school while working on a part-time basis. Some 31 boys and girls are working in hospitals, industry, service stations and nursing homes under the direction of the guidance department.
3. The teaching of modern mathematics continues to expand and include more students and grade levels. The results of introducing modern mathematics at the junior-senior high level has led us to decide to introduce the newer math at the intermediate grade level in the near future, especially for the more able pupil.
4. In the sciences, we find a new course in advanced physical science being offered to high school students.
5. The music program at the junior-senior high school level has been expanded considerably with the addition of a full-time vocal teacher.
6. Presently, the social studies and English departments are evaluating curriculum offerings to determine weaknesses or gaps in a student's educational diet. Recommendations from these two groups will be implemented on a K-12 basis so as to assure greater continuity and articulation from grade to grade and school to school.
7. At the present time, workshops and in-service programs are in the planning stage for all teachers in the academic areas of the curriculum.

Teacher Recruitment

In recent years nearly every school system in the U.S. has been energetically engaged in recruiting competent teachers to staff their classrooms. Despite the national shortage of teachers and the intensity of the competition, we have been extremely fortunate in successfully recruiting the required number of talented young men and women to the classrooms of Granby.

It is axiomatic that a school system is no better than the people who staff its schools. Therefore, in our recruitment of teachers, we are careful to select from the applicants only those who possess the talent, personality and strength of character to make a meaningful contribution to our schools and to set an example for our young people to emulate.

School Libraries

Title II of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 gave needed impetus to school library development throughout the country. Since that time, Granby has been granted $14,000 for expansion in this area.

The Junior-Senior High School and East Meadow School have modern library facilities and are staffed with full-time librarians. As the West Street School does not have central library accommodations, each classroom is being provided with its own collection of supplementary reading materials.

Guidance

Title V of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 provided federal support for strengthening of guidance programs and allowed for expansion of the staff. An additional half-time guidance counselor was provided so that we could more closely approximate the state department's counselor-pupil ratio. Counseling is the "real heart of the program" and without sufficient staff we cannot operate with maximum efficiency. Therefore, to accommodate the increased enrollment at the junior-senior high level, the School Committee will provide for an additional full-time counselor in September 1968 so that we may meet the minimum standards set by the Massachusetts Department of Education.

During 1967 the staff of the department conducted more than 500 interviews with pupils, parents and teachers. 140 applications were processed for almost 38 seniors who were admitted to 38 institutions of higher learning.

Adult Education

This year saw an increase or expansion of the Evening Practical Arts program. The program enrolled a total of 70 adult students. State-aided courses were conducted in the following: knitting, advanced clothing, cake decorating, decorated-ware and crewel embroidery. The town received $855 in Smith-Hughes-George Barden Funds to assist in the payment of the salaries of the instructors.

In addition to the above courses for adults, the Town of Granby is paying the tuition for instruction to several local residents who are attending courses in out-of-town evening trade schools.

What's Ahead

Last year I reported that with the "opening of East Meadow School" in September 1966, we eliminated the "race for classroom space" in Granby. It seems safe to assume that with the opening of this modern facility and the national decline in the birth rate, we can expect a moratorium on new school construction for a period of five to ten years.

- One asks, "What's ahead?" I respond that it appears to me, if I may do a bit of stargazing that:
1. we will have adequate classroom space at the elementary and secondary level for a minimum of five years and a maximum of ten years.
 2. we will add "K" to our public school system in Granby. Accommodation of kindergarten will not present a space problem as we have adequate classroom space available.
 3. the shortage of top qualified teachers will continue, especially in such critical subject areas as science, mathematics, foreign languages and industrial arts.
 4. increased financial support for local education will be forthcoming from the state and federal governments.
 5. we are living in an age of "specialists". As in medicine and industry, we too, in education, require the services of specialists to continue quality education on a local level. In the immediate future we will have to provide the services of additional auxiliary personnel on a priority basis.
 6. additional teachers will be needed to accommodate in-system growth at the junior-senior high level for the next five years.
 7. we should begin to give more serious attention to the length of our school day and year; continue in the elimination of our grade lines in elementary schools; find ways to give much more attention to the individual child and less to the class; offering sensible "summer programs" for the remedial, slow learner and advanced; involve ourselves more and more with the "new" equipment, the "new" gadgets, the new teaching techniques; introduce half-year courses in speech, psychology, government and economics at the high school; become more "dissatisfied" with ourselves and our programs; and see if we cannot become more enthusiastic about discovering and trying different and more effective teaching methods.

Conclusion

In retrospect, this has been both a challenging and rewarding year. None of this year's accomplishments would have been possible without the cooperation, initiative and dedication of all members of our school staff.

The members of our School Committee, whose sanction and inspiration made many of these things possible, should be commended highly for a year of such achievement. The help and understanding given this administrator by the members of the School Committee and members of our entire staff have been most gratifying.

To the P.T.O., Town Officials and every citizen who has contributed in any way to the cause of better education for Granby's children, I extend my sincere gratitude. The members of my family and I continue to appreciate the warmth and friendliness of this community and its school system.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Elementary Principal

Arthur M. Chace
Superintendent of Schools
Granby, Massachusetts

Dear Sir:

I am happy to submit my second annual report on the progress of the elementary schools in 1967.

A new program for grades 4-6 was begun in library training under the direction of the school librarian. Pupils have been taught how books are classified and how to locate particular books efficiently. At the present time the library is being extensively used by the pupils in locating information as well as selecting books for independent reading. A listening center has also been established in the adjoining Curriculum Center. Here, small groups of students can listen to tapes and view filmstrips independently.

A program of independent and small group study was established in the Social Studies field. This activity supplements the basic Social Studies course. Federal assistance funds have been of great help in implementing this program. As pupils become more proficient in this type of learning activity we hope to be able to expand this program further.

The addition of our English program of a supplementary series to teach more thoroughly the art of written composition has been implemented this past September. Written expression will be emphasized more than in the past. We hope to develop in our pupils the ability to write clearly and concisely.

With the completion of the report card evaluation conducted last year, new report cards were issued this year. These cards utilize a dual marking system so that the child's progress can be equated with his ability. This, we feel, gives to the parent a better idea of what should be expected of the pupil.

The addition to our staff of a Director of Reading has proven to be of great value in this most important area of the curriculum. She is able to devote full time to aiding the teachers and the pupils and thus improving the program being conducted. We are fortunate in having this person on our staff.

In conclusion we feel that the elementary schools are moving ahead in providing the best education possible for the children of Granby. We expect that the coming year will include further improvements in our program.

Report of The Jr.-Sr. H.S. Principal

Mr. Arthur M. Chace
Superintendent of Schools
Granby, Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Chace:

I respectfully submit my first annual report as Principal of Granby Junior-Senior High School.

As a newcomer to Granby, I must note several observations which should be of interest to Granby citizens.

I am impressed by the dedication and foresight of the citizens of Granby in providing the excellent school and land facilities of Granby Junior-Senior High School. It is a pleasure to work in this environment.

I am impressed by the conscientiousness, enthusiasm and cooperation of the teaching, office and custodial staff which serves the community. They are demonstrating a willingness to try new ideas which augurs well for the education of Granby children. It is a pleasure to work with these people.

Granby Junior-Senior High School continues to grow. I have included some figures which illustrate this point. By September, 1969 we will be 100 students larger than we are now with no grade less than 110 in size. By September, 1972 we will be at least 140 students larger than we are now. This steady growth means additional teachers will be added during the next five years, but it should not mean a drastic increase in personnel.

In 1965 Granby Junior-Senior High School was evaluated and accredited by a team from the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. During the fall of 1967 a two-year report of progress on recommendations was made to the New England Association.

Several new programs and courses of study were initiated during 1967. We moved into the second year of our Spanish language sequence and a Science Survey course was also initiated. This latter course is designed especially for the students who plan to enter college to major in non-scientific areas.

The most important change in program has involved our Work Study Program. This program was designed to allow students to attend classes but at a time which would permit them to also work outside of school during part of the school day. The rationale for this is that many students will remain in school who might otherwise leave before graduation, and it allows some students to earn money needed for higher education. Hopefully this program makes these students more productive in our own school also. The response from both students and employers to this program has been very enthusiastic. It is still too early to completely evaluate the results of this program.

Another interesting program initiated during this past year was the Special Senior Day. This grew out of a desire on the part of the staff to treat seniors as more adult members of our school community. Outside speakers, as well as our own staff, discussed current and national problems with the seniors. The response was so enthusiastic that plans are being made to continue and expand this program during the 1968-69 school year.

During the current year, a program was initiated of having the high school departments report on the activities and plans within their own departments to the School Committee. To date both the Science and the Mathematics Departments have discussed their academic situations. It is most refreshing and helpful to be able to deal directly on educational matters.

Special note should be made of the outstanding success of the Granby High School soccer team which is Bi-County League Champion for the fourth year in a row. This is an unusual record and both players and coach are to be commended.

In regard to athletics on the Junior High School level, we have instituted a moderate interscholastic soccer and basketball schedule. This program is in addition to our already excellent physical education and intramural athletic program.

One of the problems in a junior-senior high school is the tendency to unwittingly deemphasize the junior high school program. With this in mind, we have inaugurated the previously-mentioned athletic program. A junior high school chorus is flourishing, a junior high student council has been formed, and a literary publication is being prepared by seventh and eighth grade pupils. More remains to be done and, hopefully, it will be done.

One of the really encouraging omens of the future is the willingness of the faculty to plan and develop new programs — programs that will be more interesting and alive for your children. A number of faculty committees are actively working on curriculum, new ideas and changes in our procedures. The next few years should see some significant changes at Granby Junior-Senior High School.

In conclusion I would like to extend my thanks to the superintendent and the school committee for its confidence in my recent appointment. I have found this position to be exciting and the possibilities for growth with our present staff to be especially stimulating. I am looking forward to the next few years with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm.

Respectfully submitted,
LOUIS S. JOSSELYN

For the third successive year a follow-up study of last year's graduating class was conducted in the spring. Results of the study are made available below. Each group of Granby students are surveyed one year and five years after graduation to provide data on post graduate activities. Such data help in forming the curriculum of the school.

School Health Report

January 1967 - December 1967

The school nursing work has increased in direct proportion to the increase in enrollment. As of last year it was necessary to appoint an additional nurse to fulfill the needs of an adequate school health program. Besides the routine testing, clinics, surveys and etc. there is the responsibility in meeting medical emergencies which arise in the school. Much time is involved in uncovering health problems through observations, maintaining of cumulative health records, excluding and readmitting pupils for health reasons.

Annual physical health examinations were done for grades 1, 4, 7 and 10. Physicals were given to members of the soccer and basketball teams. Notification of any defects found was sent to the parents.

Triple Toxoid Clinics were held in January, February and March.

Flu vaccine was offered and administered to school personnel.

A measles clinic was held in September with grades 1, 2, and 3 participating.

The vision and hearing conservation program was completed for the 1966-1967 school year. Notices were sent to parents of pupils failing either test. Also report of test results was sent to the Division of Maternal and Child Health.

A dental survey is in progress for the current year. Dental certificates were distributed reasonably early to provide time for adequate referral and subsequent follow-up procedures.

Health is a basic objective in school today and in order to conduct a good school health program the participation of everyone concerned with the pupil is necessary. The excellent cooperation from parents, students and school personnel is greatly appreciated by your school nurses.

Veterans' District Report South Hadley - Granby

Honorable Board of Selectmen:

A resume of the new legislation under PL 90-77 of the Veterans' Readjustment Act of 1967 brought about the following:

FLIGHT TRAINING: Must have a valid Private Pilot's License, Health Certificate, and course must be approved by FAA & the State. Money involved is measured on dollar basis, namely, each $130 expended is one month, and veteran must pay 10% out of his own pocket. There is no provision for Combination Pilot-Mechanic schooling, this applies to veterans only, thus eliminates in-service personnel.

ON JOB TRAINING: Veteran must be enrolled in an approved facility, not less than 50% of journeymen's wages; six months minimum, not to exceed two years. Veteran must have a recognized objective. Following is not permitted: Service Station Management training programs, soda fountain, food service, window washing, salesman, and custodial.

APPRENTICESHIP: Not less than two years, and up to five to six years, wages must be 40% of journeyman's figure. Contact Hubert Connor, 100 Cambridge St., Room 1103, Division of Apprenticeship Training, Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

SERVICE AFTER AUGUST 5, 1964 comes under War time provisions calling for 90 days service instead of 181 days on other types of service.

AID & ATTENDANCE: Widows of veterans of all periods of war who are entitled to pension and are in need of regular aid and attendance, the monthly rate of pension can be increased by $50.

AUTOMOBILE ALLOWANCE: Requires complete loss of limb or hand to specific degree, as result of direct performance of actual duty.
